

David Roller

David Roller is the owner of Pere Marquette River Outfitters. The business, located near Baldwin, Michigan has been in existence since 1979. They specialize in salmon, steelhead and brown trout trips on the Pere Marquette, the Muskegon and the Manistee River. During the summer months when fishing slows down in Michigan David along with his brother Kurt organizes float trips to Alaska's famed Alagnak River. In addition to being an accomplished river guide he is an accomplished fly tier and rod builder.

www.peremarquetteoutfitters.com