Jeff is no stranger to the sport. He's been casting a line since 1975 and tying since 1971, starting at about the age of nine. His passion for fishing was started by his father Ben Bonin and later by his friends Howard Neis and Jim Kane.

Jeff possesses a Master's Degree in Education and retired from teaching/coaching in 2013.

In 1991 he started his business, Steelhead Connection Custom Flies, out of North Muskegon, Michigan. They specialize in custom tied Rapture Trolling Flies for salmon.
