

Josh Greenberg

Josh was born and raised in Ohio and learned the art of fly fishing in the Smoky Mountain National Park. In 1995 at the young age of 15 his family relocated to Michigan. Josh happened into Gates Lodge one day and Rusty asked him if he could tie. Josh said yes, and the rest is history. Josh has tied flies commercially for over 15 years and is also a professional river guide. He now manages the Gates Au Sable Lodge and Fly Shop on a full time basis. He's fished most of the great rivers of this country and New Zealand.
