

Kelly Galloup

Kelly began his career tying flies in Traverse City, Michigan at the age of 13. By 16 he was a professional guide on the Au Sable and Boardman Rivers. He owned a fly shop and guided on Michigan waters for over twenty five years, before moving to Montana.

Kelly has authored two books, Cripples and Spinners and Modern Streamers for Trophy Trout, has been published in most every major trout and fishing magazine, and has been a host on the Outdoor Life TV Network as well as Fly

Fish TV. In 2004, Kelly was the recipient of the Living Legend Award presented by the Federation of Flyfishers. Kelly and his wife Penny now own “Galloup’s Slide Inn” on the Madison River in Montana.
