

Laid Back Hex

Recipe

- Hook: Daiichi #1280 2X Long Sz: 6
Thread: Yellow, 6/0
Tail: Moose Hair, overlaid with olive Z-Lon, tied long.
Body: Deer hair tied parallel to the hook shank, flared at the tail, crisscrossed with yellow thread.
Rib: Grizzly hackle, palmered.
Wing: Deer Hair, flared down over the back and trimmed for the head.
Hackle: Brown and Grizzly, mixed, trimmed at the bottom.

Tying Tips: Standard techniques are used.

Fishing Tips: Used for the tough fish when they just don't want to rise. Also used in rough current.

History: This fly was created by Rusty Gates back in the 1990s. There is another popular variation of this fly where the palmering is left off and black rubber legs are tied in at the thorax in an X pattern.
